FOLKMANIS® Puppets

Fierce,
FABULOUS,
& FIFTY!

Original Black Bear 1976

ONCE UPON A TIME, two young parents named Judy and Atis Folkmanis believed in something wonderfully old-fashioned: the power of play. In a tiny home filled with children, books and bits of fabric scattered across the kitchen table, Judy began sewing animal puppets to engage and entertain her sons. But these were no ordinary toys. A raccoon seemed to whisper secrets and a tiny turtle carried a spark of possibility wherever it went. Friends and neighbors fell in love with them. Soon Judy was selling her handmade creations along Telegraph Avenue in Berkeley, where every puppet found a new storyteller, a new child and a new home. What began as a humble hobby unfolded into a magical journey powered by imagination, craftsmanship and heart.

Today, fifty years later, that same spirit still lives in every Folkmanis® Puppet. From woodland creatures and jungle animals to fantastical friends that inspire entire worlds of make-believe, Folkmanis has become a beloved companion to generations around the globe. Yet at its heart, the company remains what it has always been: a family dream stitched with care and brought to life through joy, curiosity and love.
